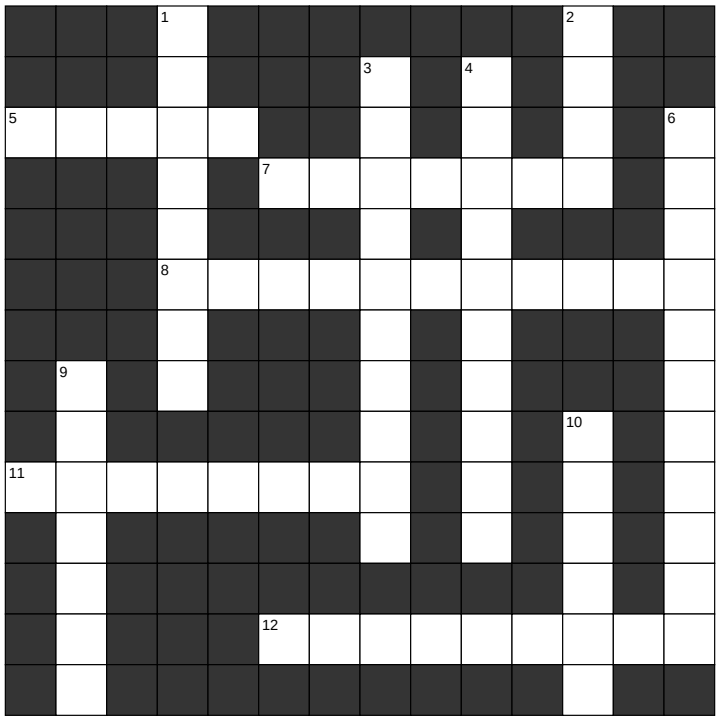
Chapter 0a: SQL Review and ACID Transactions

Crossword - Chapter review

Use chapter concepts to solve the clues. Omit spaces and punctuation in the grid.



Across

5. A _____ stores rows with named columns.

7. A _____ key connects a row to a row in another table.

8. It cannot infer every rule of our _____.

11. A query specifies a result; the _____ system decides how to produce it.

12. ACID names four transaction properties: Atomicity, Consistency, _____, and Durability.

Down

1. _____ cancels its uncommitted changes.

2. A _____ combines matching rows from related tables:

3. A _____ connects a row to a row in another table.

4. A _____ identifies a row.

6. A _____ groups database work into a unit that can be committed or rolled back.

9. Structured Query Language (SQL) lets us describe the data we want and the _____ we want to make.

10. _____ makes the transaction's changes permanent.